Finally, there will be a chance to take photos with baby crocodiles and then end the perfect trip.

Hotel : Holiday Inn Express & Suites Pembroke Pines / Courtyard by Marriott or similar

Day 3: Key West (Ends of the Earth)

On the day we will drive to the tip of the Florida Keys, Key West, be praised as American ends of the Earth. It's about a four-hour drive (in good conditions) on the road including 42 Bridges of varying lengths and 32 islands you can enjoy. This is Florida's Route 1, once an economic railroad line that was also known as the "eighth wonder of the World". Along the way it will no longer be a tired drive, but be infinite beauty, as if driving on the sea. The stopover will be at the famous "Seven Mile Bridge", where is the filming location of "True Lies" starring Arnold Schwarzenegger.

After arriving at Key West, take a group photo at the landmark of "the southernmost of American mainland", only 90 miles from Cuba. Enjoy lunch and arrange tour time of each scenic spot by yourself. You can take part in water sports (motorboat, glass vessel, paragliders, etc.), take sightseeing small train and experience the local cuisine (conch croquette, Key West lime). You can also visit Hemingway Home & Museum on your own. You can also visit the famous BaiTou street and the waterfront pier and choose souvenirs. Start our Sunset Tour in the late afternoon: Key West is known as the land of the sunset. Arrive at Mallory Square, rated by National Geographic magazine as the best sunset viewing spot in the United States, to enjoy the most romantic sunset. In one corner of the Square, the resident singers are singing. Tourists will dance freely accompanied by beautiful music. Enjoy the beautiful sunset, whether you are alone, or with friends or with your family, want to use the only word "romantic" to describe this scene and this moment. People here forget the world, forget their identity. They just quietly enjoy the infinite pleasure of the sunset. Guests can also enjoy a glass of beer at the sunset bar and watch the sun slowly disappear over the horizon. (This special itinerary starts at winter time and ends at daylight saving time. It's the must-go attraction. The whole group is required to participate in the action. **).

Day 4: Fort Lauderdale—Venice of America—West Palm Beach / winter White House (Mar-a-Lago)

At noon, arriving at the famous "yacht capital of the world" -- Fort Lauderdale, you will visit the "Venice of America", which is the world's largest yacht base. Spielberg's and Steve Jobs' super luxury yacht are parked here. Mansions and yachts on both sides make up the landscape. You can also relax on the beach or take part in nearby water sports such as paragliding and motorboats.

Take American Venice cruise along crisscrossed waterways to appreciate the beauty of Venice, the yacht capital of the United States. There are many distinctive buildings designed by leaders in every field in the United States. Here parked ten million dollar level yacht. You can enjoy the cruise pleasure as the rich travel, but also meet the desire to take photos.

For 4-day tour and flights depart between 15:00 and 19:00 PM, we will end the itinerary and arrange guests to Airport or Cruise Pier drop off.

Then we go to north of Miami - West Palm Beach where gather the rich. Not only enjoy blue Atlantic Ocean and the golden Beach, but also you can go shopping at Worth Ave where gather world luxury brands. Comfortable shopping and the natural environment can make people forget to leave. The 45th President of the United States interviewed President Xi Jinping here. Via winter White House - Mar - a - Lago. For 4-day tour and flights depart after 19:00PM, we'll arrange the airport drop off at the end of the tour. For 5-/6-Day tours, you will be transferred back to hotel.
