Options (must be purchased at the time of booking)

The optional itinerary may be subject to change depending on the departure date of the Rockies Tour*

(A) Vancouver one day city tour

We start the day by visiting some famous attractions located in downtown Vancouver, which include the second largest China Town in North America, the born place of the first steam clock—Gas Town, Canada Place and Canada Winter Olympic Park. At Canada Place, you could take FlyOver Canada (optional), a flight stimulator ride allowing you to see Canada like never before. You will fly from coast to coast to coast, over Niagara Falls, and over other iconic parts of the world’s second largest country. We continue our tour to Stanley Park and the Suspension Bridge. Stanley Park covers 1,000 acres with forest and numerous totem poles crafted by the First Nations. Inside Capilano Suspension Bridge Park, you could take a walk and explore the 300 foot high Cliff Walk (optional). To make your perfect day, we visit Queen Elizabeth Park to stand at the highest point in Vancouver, where you can have spectacular views of the Park and downtown Vancouver.

(B) Victoria one day tour

Tour starts with a scenic BC Ferries ride from Tsawwassen terminal through Strait of Georgia to Vancouver Island. Upon arrival in Vancouver Island we visit the century old Butchart Gardens. These world-famous floral gardens are located on a 55-acre estate in Victoria. People from around the world have been coming to see the gardens for more than 100 years. After lunch (meal plan for $16/p), tour proceeds to the Victoria Chinatown. Passing the narrowest commercial street in Canada—Fan Tan Alley, where you could feel the developing history of Chinese in Canada. Afterward we visit the old British Style Victoria Inner Harbor tourist area. Here we can find the BC Legislature Building, the Royal BC Museum (optional), the Centennial Square, the famous Empress Hotel. Then we visit Beacon Hill Park to see Mile Zero, the starting point of the TransCanada Highway 1. Back to Vancouver in the late afternoon.

(C) Whistler one day tour

Whistler is a popular year-round destination with endless sightseeing and mountain resorts in North America. The excitement starts before reaching the village as you can enjoy the beautiful scenery on the Sea to Sky Highway. Passing through Horseshoe Bay, Squamish and Shannon Falls, the third tallest waterfalls in BC, and winding along Georgia Strait and Sunshine Coast, while one side is the sea and the other side is the mountain. Arriving Whistler, you will find a Swiss-setting alpine village, where you can enjoy European style shopping fun. Then ride on the thrilling Peak-2-Peak Gondola (optional) to the top and take the scenic 4.4km journey between Whistler and Blackcomb mountains. Back to Vancouver in late afternoon. (Whistler tour schedule may be changed due to seasonal and weather conditions.)

(D) Free day
